WELCOME

Hello and welcome to UNC's chapter of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA@UNC). My name is Joel DuBois, I'm a third-year doctoral student working on my dissertation (Dwight Gustafson's choral music and aesthetic philosophy). I also work as a graduate assistant for UNC clubs and organizations in the Student Activities office at the UC. My GA job allows me to get involved in club activities, and I'd like to see our ACDA chapter at UNC get going and grow. My goals for the semester are to advertise and promote choral activities in northern Colorado and to create an ACDA@UNC website.

SPREAD THE WORD

If you know of others who would be interested in joining ACDA@UNC, please have them contact me so I can add their name to the roster.

OFFICERS NEEDED

Would you like to get involved in ACDA@UNC? Currently there are three officer positions open for the Spring semester: Vice President (President elect), Secretary, and Treasurer. As an officer you'll have the opportunity to plan activities and promote the choral department at UNC, plus it looks great on your resume! Please contact me if you are interested: dubois.joel@gmail.com

MONEY AVAILABLE TO ATTEND ACDA NATIONAL CONVENTION

Did you know that UNC provides funding to help you attend conferences in your discipline? Both undergrads and grads can apply for funding through the Student Representative Council. If you are interested in receiving funding to attend the ACDA convention or another choral workshop, please see the links below.
